Meet one of the oldest polo clubs on the East Coast, Brandywine Polo Club, whose history is as rich as its beautiful grounds—located on 122 verdantly wooded acres amongst the rolling hills of southern Chester County. Located near Kennett Square, Pa., Brandywine Polo Club was started in 1950 by James McHugh, a former intercollegiate Yale player. Success came quickly as the Brandywine Polo Club team won the 1956 U.S. Open Polo Championship at Oak Brook Polo Club in Illinois, 11-10, over Aurora. Their winning team was Dr. Raworth Williams, Ray Harrington Jr., Clarence C. Combs Jr., and William A. Mayer.

About Boothwyn Pharmacy

Since 1933, Boothwyn Pharmacy has been an integral part of providing vital pharmacy services to its local & regional communities. Located at the historical crossroads of a post-Revolutionary battle (Brandywine Creek, ca.1777) foraging party & Pennsylvania’s famous Oil Refinery port, the Boothwyn Pharmacy traces its root to helping local physicians whose patients; were devastated by the “Great Depression.”

At the same time, its proximity to Pennsylvania’s legendary pirate haven & first “port of call” (Marrites-Hoeck) demanded that it assist the ship’s doctors with translating & dispensing prescriptions for their sea-weary international sailors. To its West, the Pharmacy administered with the calls of local country veterinarians at the legendary but now defunct Brandywine Raceway Harness Track.

Boothwyn Pharmacy has specialized in assisting its patients with various pharmaceutical needs for many decades. They have formulated unique prescriptions for patients' needs and the doctors who treat them. Our Patient-Centric focus and close collaboration with practitioners have been part of Our DNA for almost a century.
